TRAIN ROBBERS STILL AT LARGE.

Low Silver In Mexico--Anarchists Coming to America--Work to Begin on the Panama Canal.

Special to the APPEAL

Effect of Low Silver.

City of Mexico, August 8.—The good credit of Mexico was never more thoroughly demonstrated than it has been in a loan which has just been placed. For the first time in the history of the country Mexican bonds have been placed at par. The loan, which is for $600,000, was taken by English and French capitalists and is payable in two years. It was made necessary by bad crops and the high rates of exchange caused by the low price of silver. This loan, the best ever effected by Mexico, signals the entrance into the Treasury Department of Senor Matias Romero.

The Last Drink.

Chicago, August 8.—Late Saturday night Dr. Vincent Cole invited two friends, Clinton S. Ingraham of San Francisco and Louis Brunig, to drink with him at his office. By mistake he poured out carbolic acid instead of whisky, and the three men drank. The mistake was at once realized, but before assistance could be obtained Ingraham was dead and Dr. Cole was in a dying condition. Burnig drank less than the others and may recover.

Anarchists Coming to America.

New York, August 9.—The officials of Ellis island are keeping a sharp lookout for Francis and Menier, the Parisian Anarchists and friends of Ravachol, who are believed to have been accomplices in all the recent plots against the Government of France, and one of the two is believed to be responsible for the destruction of the Cafe Very in Paris, which resulted in the death of the proprietor and a printer named Hammond.

Fabulously Rich.

Mountain Home, Idaho, Aug. 9.—There is great excitement over the discovery of fabulously rich gold-bearing quartz ledges in Dairy District, 22 miles up Rock Bar Roads. On one mine a shaft has been sunk 50 feet and has a large vein exposed which gives an average value of 50 ounces of gold to the ton. Other and smaller veins give much higher returns.

Work On The Panama Canal.

London, August 7.—The Standard's Paris correspondent says: M. Monchicourt, liquidator of the Panama Canal Company, has signed a convention with a syndicate of financiers and the former Panama canal contractors to resume work on the canal. It is rumored that no appeal will be made to the public for funds until the work is well advanced.

Weaver Making Votes in S. F.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—General Weaver addressed an immense audience of eight thousand people here tonight. He also spoke at a big mass meeting at Oakland this afternoon, undoubtedly awakening among the labor classes here, for the third party ticket.

Still at Large.

Reedley, Cal., Aug. 9.—Nothing further has been learned concerning the train robbers. They are supposed to have made their escape into the mountains. Many officers and deputies have given up the chase and returned home.

Carnegie Denounced.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 9.—The National Convention of Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners passed resolutions denouncing the Carnegie company for employing Pinkertons, roundly scoring the Pinkertonism and expressing sympathy with the Coeur d'Alene miners.

Improving the Navy.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The Government has ordered the Navy Department to prepare plans at once for six new men of war, to be built for long cruises in the Pacific Ocean, each vessel to go two thousand tons and be swift.

Landed all Right.

New York, Aug. 9.—A little before 11 o'clock this morning the famous treasure train, carrying $20,000,000 in gold from San Francisco to New York, arrived at its destination.

A Schooner Seized.

Halifax, Aug. 9.—The American schooner Belle Bartlett, was seized at Fort Hawkesbury yesterday, charged with violation of the customs laws in 1890.

Probably Crazy.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—Paul Duchesne, a bookkeeper for H. Plageman & Co., suicided by taking chloroform. No cause is known. He was 60 years of age.

Has anybody claimed that Senator Stewart had joined any party? All the Silver party requires of any person is a signature to the Silver League pledge and they can call themselves what they like.

Knights of Pythias can go from Carson to Truckee and return for $7 the round trip on the occasion of the celebration there next Friday and Saturday. This will include a picnic and a barbecue at Donner Lake.

Bodie does not propose to be downed by fire. The Miner states that building lots became valuable the morning after, and that buildings will be put up immediately. Orlando Jones, recently of the News lost $2,700.

Lawyers in the Eastern part of the State are discussing the phrase "physical disability" in connection with the election laws, but if they will examine the recently printed Election Laws, compiled by Sec. of State O. H. Gray they can get all the information required.

If Jack Plant, Jack Enders and Jack Pot, three Virginia celebrities will quit gassing about the gun club, put up their initiation fee and come into the ranks, it would be a big improvement on their present methods of organizing in the back room of the International saloon—as long as the free lunch holds out.

All For Silver.

S. T. Boston, the red hot silver man of Silver City, and the enrolling clerk of the Silver League, has succeeded in getting up a free coinage ball in Silver City, August 12th, the proceeds of which are to go toward paying the campaign expenses, of the Silver Party. All should attend who have the interests of the State at heart.

Shot in the Thigh.

The youngest son of D. Brule Spooner's foreman, shot himself in the left thigh Monday with a parlor rifle. Dr. Guinan brought the boy to Carson and he is getting along well. It lodged among the big arteries and is exceedingly hard to locate, the channel it made in entering, being so small.

A Good Ordinance.

At a meeting of the Board of City Trustees recently, an ordinance was passed in which cotton-bearing trees were deemed a nuisance. Any one permitting such trees to become cotton-bearing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be liable to a fine of $50 or 25 days in jail.

A BAD EXAMPLE.

The Husband is Saved, but the Dog is a Hopeless Wreck.

For several weeks past a lady in Carson has been very uneasy about her pet lap dog. The little rascal has become addicted to the liquor habit, to such an extent that every evening he comes home drunk as a lord, and jumping up on the plush lounge goes into a dead snooze, to sleep it off.

On several occasions the good woman has been unable to eat her meals, owing to the loss of appetite incidental to the debauches of her pet.

She has been at a loss to know the why and wherefore of the jag system. The other day she was coming out of the Postoffice just as the "dear creature" staggered out from under the sidewalks of the Wieland saloon, and reeled across the street in answer to her call. She lifted her dainty gloved hand to the rollicking little brute, and poured out a string of abuse intended to shrink him.

"Oh, you bad, bad, doggy. Don't you know you make your mistress feel so bad, my own curly little pet?" He seemed to understand at once, and the badly mused up tail went to the sidewalk in a second. As soon as he showed signs of weakening, she stooped down, picked him up, and pressing the dusty canine to her cheek gurgled:

"Oh, never mind petty, petty. I'll forgive you this time. There, there, there."

That night a tall gentleman, trying his best to be taller and straighter, staggered into the door of the little cottage, and was met in the hall by the owner of the dog.

He attempted to explain just how necessary it was for him to be out so late, but it was useless to proceed.

"You're a pretty brute," burst out the fiery wife, "you're the man I took to wed, hoping he would be a true good husband, and love cherish and obey me always."

"You miserable coarse man, the contemptible wretch who taught my sweet little dog to drink the drippings from filthy beer kegs."

"Why" said the father of the household "I can't help it if the confounded c—

"Shut up you reprobate; don't you dare talk back to be after setting my dog such an example. It's high time you took a lesson in house culture, take that" and with all the force at her command she picked up a cigar lighter from the hall table and dropped it on his head with a dull punk. After casting one reproachful look at the remains she hurried to her chamber to pet the lap dog who lay sleeping on her silk dress at the foot of the bed, absolutely forgetting the companion of her joys and sorrows who lay speechless at the foot of the hall.

He is now a prohibitionist of the strongest kind but the lap dog continues to quaff the foam and own the entire house. The meek, pale husband occasionally comes home to his meals but makes no remarks.

Sam Wright's Will.

The will of the late Sam Wright will surprise everybody in Carson who has had any knowledge of the domestic relations of the deceased. The faithful devotion of his wife has been a matter of universal comment and commendation. That she should be left without a home to call her own seems incredible yet the reading of the will yesterday disclosed the fact that his two sons will inherit the entire property. Mrs. Wright is given the privilege to live in and receive the income of the White House as long as she remains a widow. Should she marry she will receive a dowry of $1,000. The fortune is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000. T. J. Edwards, J. M. Rhodes, and the boys John and Sam are named as executors. T. J. Edwards is quoted as saying that he will not serve upon so unjust a document. The APPEAL regrets to publish such a blot upon the character of a citizen heretofore held in such high esteem.

Pardon Refused.

Senator Stewart has been informed that the application for a pardon for Mrs. Mary Wiley, now confined in the State Prison, for selling liquor to Indians, has on the recommendation of the U. S. District Attorney Witcher, been adversely acted upon by the Department of Justice in Washington.

According to Professor Foster, we ought to "look out for rain about this time."

WHY

THAT IS THE QUESTION.

Can you go to the EMPORIUM and know you will get the worth of your money?

BECAUSE

Abe treats you well; gives you one price, and tells you frankly if your purchase is cotton or wool, and if it will wash and wear.
